

Curriculum Vitae: Dr. James Mortensen PT, DPT #2997

B.S. in Kinesiological Sciences in 2010

Doctor of Physical Therapy awarded from Touro University Nevada in 2014

Physical Therapist at FYZICAL Therapy and Balance Centers 2014-present

Director of Operations of FYZICAL Therapy and Balance Centers Las Vegas 2015-2018

Regional Director of FYZICAL Therapy and Balance Centers Las Vegas 2018-present

Extensive training in Vestibular Rehabilitation under nationally renowned Brian Werner of FYZICAL

Certified in Applied Prevention and Health Promotion through the Institute of Clinical Excellence

Certified in Dry Needling Lvl-1 by Kineticore 2018

Master Level 3 Balance Certified by FYZICAL Therapy and Balance Centers Educational curriculum

Completed advanced coursework on treatment and diagnosis of Cervical dysfunction 2017, 2018, 2019, 2022

Completed advanced coursework on treatment and diagnosis of Lumbar dysfunction 2017, 2018, 2019, 2022

Completed advanced coursework on treatment and diagnosis of TMJD 2019

Completed advanced coursework on treatment and diagnosis of Cervicogenic Dizziness 2020

Completed advanced coursework on treatment and diagnosis of mTBI/Concussion 2020

Completed advanced coursework on administration of Computerized Dynamic Posturography 2020

Been involved in Vestibular Rehabilitation and Concussion management since 2008

Also:

Guest Lecturer at PIMA Institute regarding Vestibular Rehab and concussion management

Fyzical Therapy and Balance Centers National Educator and instructor for Balance 1, 2, 3 courses

Guest Lecturer at Carrington College regarding Vestibular Rehab

Guest Lecturer at Gurnick Academy of Medical Arts in California

Retained Expert: Mackey V Penskey

Featured on the Ed Bernstein Show regarding Vestibular Rehab and concussion management Featured in The Vitamin Shoppe "How To Reduce Pain When Performing Common Lifting Moves" Featured in multiple printed articles

Multiple PR venue appearances